RE: General Account Wire Instructions

Below are instructions for making wire transfer payments of invoices from your own bank into the Lane Powell PC general depository account. Alternatively secure web payments can be made from <https://www.lanepowell.com/payment/>

NOTE – Use the General Account and not the Trust Account for payments consisting entirely of billed fees and costs (Accounts Receivable). All other payments including retainers should be directed to the Trust Account.

FRAUD ALERT – Any subsequent “update” to these instructions that you may receive should be confirmed by telephone call to your primary Lane Powell contact.
