

Elijah M. Forde

Attorney
fordee@lanepowell.com
360.754.6001

Areas of Practice

Elijah Forde's experience includes working as an Assistant Attorney General in the Washington State Attorney General Office, where he represented the Department of Labor and Industries in worker's compensation and building trades disputes at the Board of Industrial Insurance Appeals, the Office of Administrative Hearings and in Superior Court. He also worked as a law clerk for the District of Columbia Public Defender's Service, representing incarcerated youth in disciplinary hearings. He is a member of several organizations, including the Governor's Affirmative Action Policy Committee, Attorneys Assisting Citizen Soldiers and Families, and as Vice President of the Loren Miller Bar Association, where he coordinates the Association's involvement in legal and political matters affecting the African American community.

Professional Experience

Assistant Attorney General, Washington State Office of Attorney General
Law Clerk, District of Columbia Public Defender's Service
Research Assistant, Howard University School of Law

Admitted to Practice

Washington

Academics

Howard University (J.D.)
Merit Scholarship
Technical Editor, Howard Social Justice Law Review
Howard University Civil Rights Clinic

Practice Group and Specialty Team Memberships

Labor and Employment

Speaking Engagements

"Alternatives to Law," Western Region Black Law Students' Association Convention, January 2009

Professional and Community Activities

Member, Governor's Affirmative Action Policy Committee
Vice President, Loren Miller Bar Association
Volunteer Mock Trial Coach, Seattle Preparatory School
Volunteer Instructor, Urban League of Metropolitan Seattle (2008)
Students of Color Resource Center
Student Delegate, United Nations Conference on Xenophobia in Durban, South Africa (2001)
Student Ambassador to Bunkyo University, Japan (2000)