

David A. Petteys

Attorney
petteysd@lanepowell.com
206.223.7049

Areas of Practice

David Petteys is an associate and member of Lane Powell's Taxation Practice Group. He has more than 13 years of experience with state and local taxes, including sales and use tax, income tax, gross receipts tax, ad valorem property tax, real estate excise tax, leasehold excise tax and other business taxes. David regularly counsels clients on tax refunds, letter rulings and managing audits. He has handled tax controversy matters at all levels, from administrative appeals to trial and appellate court litigation.

David is Co-Chair of the Washington State Bar Association Taxation Section Legislative Committee and was previously Chair of the organization's Continuing Legal Education Committee.

Professional Experience

Tax Counsel, Amazon.com (2008)
Senior Associate, Perkins Coie LLP (2002-2008)
Judicial Extern to Judge Thomas S. Zilly, United States District Court of the Western District of Washington (2002)

Admitted to Practice

Washington

Academics

Seattle University School of Law (J.D., summa cum laude, 2002)
Dean's List, 2000-2002
Associate Editor, Seattle University Law Review
Western Washington University (B.A., 1991)

Practice Group and Specialty Team Membership

Taxation
Native American Affairs
Renewable Energy

Recent Publications

Need A Little Incentive? Tax Credits That Can Help You Save Money, BUILDERnews magazine, June 2009
Washington State Tax Service, Practice Insights, Lexis/Matthews Bender & Co., 2008 (Contributing author)
Washington Chapter, ABA Sales and Use Tax Deskbook (published annually), 2005-2007 (Co-Editor)

Professional and Community Activities

Washington State Bar Associations, Taxation Section
Co-Chair, Legislative Committee, 2005-Present
Chair, Continuing Legal Education Committee, 2005-2007
American Bar Association, Taxation Section, 2005-2007