

Darin M. Sands

Attorney
sandsd@lanepowell.com
503.778.2117

Areas of Practice

Darin Sands focuses his practice on general business litigation, representing business organizations and individuals in complex litigation. He has represented clients in a wide variety of matters including antitrust actions, securities class actions, ERISA Litigation, consumer class actions, internal investigations and trademark disputes. In 2006 and 2007, Darin served as a judicial clerk to the Honorable Robert S. Lasnik, Chief Judge of the Western District of Washington.

Professional Experience

Associate, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher (2007-2010)
Judicial Clerk, Chief Judge of the Western District of Washington, The Honorable Robert S. Lasnik (2006-2007)
Associate, Heller Ehrman LLP (2004-2006)

Admitted to Practice

Oregon
California
Washington

Academics

Harvard Law School (J.D., 2004)
Editor, Harvard Journal of Law & Technology
Research and Teaching Assistant to Professor Laurence Tribe
Middlebury College (B.A., magna cum laude, 2000)

Practice Group and Specialty Team Memberships

Antitrust and Trade Regulation
Business Crisis Management and Emergency Remedies
Class Action Defense
ERISA Litigation
Litigation
White Collar Criminal Defense, Regulatory Compliance and Special Investigations

Publications

“Mootness in the Class Action Context: Court-Created Exceptions to the ‘Case or Controversy’ Requirement of Article III,” 26 The Review of Litigation 77, Co-author (Winter 2007)

Professional and Community Activities

Member, Oregon State Bar
Member, Multnomah Bar Association