Area of Practice

Hal Snow is a primary member of the Taxation and Trusts and Estates Practice Groups. He is also a member of the Business and Long Term Care Practice Groups. Hal has 30 years of experience helping families and business owners in the areas of business succession planning, asset protection planning, wealth transfer and transfer tax minimization. In the estate planning area, he has significant experience in succession planning for closely held businesses, including the transfer of ownership to the next generation with minimum estate tax cost. He also spends a significant amount of time working with clients who have multi-national planning issues.

Hal is the author of several articles in the areas of estate planning, asset protection planning and business succession planning, and is also a frequent speaker at estate and business planning seminars.
