Lane Powell Celebrates the Business of Pride With Puget Sound Business Journal

Work | Life

Lane Powell was proud to be a Platinum Sponsor of Puget Sound Business Journal's (PSBJ) Business of Pride celebration on June 1 for a second consecutive year. Business of Pride recognizes outstanding leaders and businesses who have shared their voice in advancing equality in the workplace.

The celebration took place at the Paramount Theatre in downtown Seattle, and included musical entertainment from local actor Richard Gray, as well as the announcement of the Top 25 LGBTQ-Owned Companies and 16 individual Outstanding Voices in the Puget Sound area. Lane Powell President Chuck Riley helped present the Outstanding Voices awards on stage.

PSBJ published a coinciding Business of Pride insert that explores LGBTQ trends, issues and workplace diversity, and shines a spotlight on people, companies, polices and progress in the Puget Sound business community.
