

November 21, 2016 News

Topics

Investigations & Regulatory Compliance

Related People

Related Practices & Industries

Investigations, Compliance & White
Collar

Litigation

Securities & Corporate Governance
Litigation

Washburn Admitted to Washington State Bar

Awards & Honors

Taylor Washburn, a Lane Powell attorney in the Litigation Practice Group, has been admitted to the Washington State Bar. Washburn focuses his practice on securities and corporate governance litigation, and investigations by the SEC, FINRA and state regulators.

Washburn earned his J.D. from Columbia Law School, and his A.B., with high honors in Government, from Bowdoin College.

Washburn is also licensed to practice in Massachusetts and the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts.