

August 30, 2016 News

---

Related People

Related Practices & Industries

Litigation

Odom Rejoins Lane Powell's Litigation Practice Group

Firm Announcement

Jeffrey M. Odom has rejoined Lane Powell as a Shareholder in the Seattle office, and member of the Firm's Litigation Practice Group. Odom has substantial experience in complex litigation with an emphasis on commercial disputes, construction, toxic torts and product liability among manufacturers, distributors and sellers in several industries. He represents national, regional and local companies in various business disputes, and has served as lead outside counsel managing litigation for a fitness equipment distributor.

Prior to beginning his private law practice, Odom served as a Judicial Extern for Justice Robert Benham of the Supreme Court of Georgia and won the 2001 National Trial Advocacy Competition. He is also the editor of the LexisNexis Practice Guide: Washington Torts and Personal Injury. Odom earned his J.D. from Georgia State University College of Law and his B.A. in English from the University of Utah.