

June 27, 2012 News

Topics

Railroad and Mass Transportation

Related People

Matson Appointed President of the Association of Transportation Law Professionals and Given 2012 Presidential Award

Awards & Honors

On June 15, Lane Powell Shareholder Katie Matson became the 84th President of the Association of Transportation Law Professionals (“ATLP”) at the 84th Annual Meeting in Chicago. The ATLP is an international organization of attorneys and in-house counsel involved in marine, rail, air and trucking transportation. In addition, Matson was presented the Presidential Award for her work on the ATLP publications. The ATLP publishes the Journal of Transportation Law, Logistics and Policy quarterly that is distributed internationally. Matson is the current chair of the ATLP Publications Committee. For more information about the ATLP, visit their website.