Public Works Contracting and Best Practices

Municipal Research and Services Center | Webinar

Grant Degginger and Andrew Gabel will participate in Municipal Research and Services Center's "Public Works Contracting and Best Practices" Webinar on November 14, from 11 a.m. to noon. The webinar will speak to public work directors, project managers, design professionals and city/county attorneys and will cover an array of topics related to common construction disputes. Degginger and Gabel will provide insights and best practices on preparation of construction contracts, dealing with design errors, resolving disputes, and preventing delay claims, including tips to get projects back on track.
