Maloney Appointed National Chair of Membership for the National Center for State Courts

Awards & Honors

Bob Maloney has been appointed National Chair of Membership for the National Center for State Courts (NCSC). NCSC consists of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in each state, general counsel from leading companies throughout the U.S., and prominent lawyers from major plaintiff and defense law firms throughout the country. The organization has become a national voice for state courts in a range of areas from civil jury reform, independence for election of state court judges, electronic discovery, management of complex civil cases and advice on dealing with legal systems in other countries. It functions as a central resource for state court judges and court professionals by providing nationally accumulated expertise, knowledge and information to assist state courts in reaching better resolutions.
